Children will discover books from much-loved children's authors such as Julia Donaldson, Michael Morpurgo, Jacqueline Wilson, Malorie Blackman and Anne Fine.

Isadora Moon :

Isadora Moon is special because she is different. Her mum is a fairy and her dad is a vampire and she is a bit of both. So when it's time for Isadora to start school she's not sure where she belongs - vampire school or fairy school?

Judy Moody and Friends :

An all-new Judy Moody series just right for newly independent readers.

Winnie and Wilbur :

Winnie loves Wilbur, her big black cat.

She also loves her orange and yellow stripy tights, pumpkin soup, and waving her magic wand.

Young Reading + Cd :

Beautifully produced, with lively writing and fabulous illustration, the books are designed to capture the imagination and build the confidence of beginner readers, and to motivate and inspire children who find reading difficult or dull.

Candlewick Sparks :

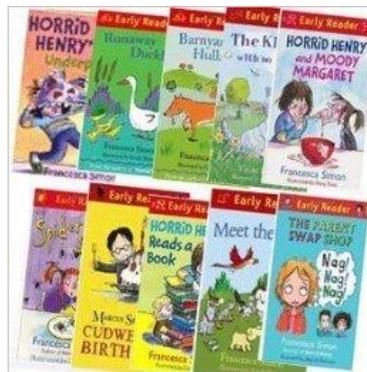

Candlewick Sparks, perfect for the newly independent reader, are sure to ignite a lifelong love of reading.

Mighty Robot :

In each book, Ricky Ricotta, a mouse, with the help of his mighty robot, saves the world from an evil villain. Also, the books each have an alien creature from a different planet in order from closest-to-sun to farthest-from-sun including Earth, as the villain of the first book is from Earth. The reader could see the villains being jailed in each series and later notice the familiar villains from previous books.

Horrid Henry :

Henry a self-centred, naughty prankster who has issues with authority who will typically be faced with a problem and then will often retaliate in interesting ways that involve trickery, rule-breaking and elaborate practical jokes. Henry has a brother, whom he bullies, called Perfect Peter, who is the exact opposite.
