

Fantásticas lecturas para el verano :

Tom Gates :

Tom Gates is the master of excuses for late homework: dog attacks - spilt water - lightning...Tom's exercise book is full of his doodles, cartoons and thoughts, as well as comments from his long-suffering teacher, Mr Fullerton. After gaining five merits for his CAMPING SUCKS holiday story, Tom's work starts to go downhill - which is a pity, as he's desperate to impress Amy Porter, who sits next to him...

Michael Morpurgo :

Michael Morpurgo is an English book author, poet, and playwright, who is known best for children's novels. His work is noted for its "magical storytelling", for recurring themes such as the triumph of an outsider or survival, for characters' relationships with nature, and for vivid settings such as the Cornish coast or World War I. Morpurgo became the third British Children's Laureate, from 2003 to 2005.

Jacqueline Wilson :

Dame Jacqueline Wilson, is an English writer of children's literature. As her children's novels are frequently themed around adoption, divorce and mental illness, they attract controversy. For her lifetime contribution as a children's writer, Wilson was a UK nominee for the international Hans Christian Andersen Award in 2014.

David Walliams :

Walliams is a writer of children's books. To date he has sold more than 12.5 million copies and his books have been translated into 46 languages He has been described as "the fastest growing children's author in the UK": his literary style has been compared to that of Roald Dahl.

Roald Dahl :

Born in Wales to Norwegian parents, Dahl rose to prominence in the 1940s with works for both children and adults and he became one of the world's best-selling authors. He has been referred to as "one of the greatest storytellers for children of the 20th century". His awards for contribution to literature include the 1983 World Fantasy Award for Life Achievement, and the British Book Awards' Children's Author of the Year in 1990. In 2008, The Times placed Dahl 16th on its list of "The 50 greatest British writers since 1945".
